Lori Bonin is a results-driven and Fortune 50 executive leader with a focus on business development through partnerships and collaboration with 30+ years of experience in finance, operations and properties.

She started her career as a CPA for Ernst & Young (EY) and holds a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from the University of St. Thomas. Lori spent almost 20 years at Target Corporation in finance and property development. In her most recent role at Target, she was the Vice President for all store facility operations. Lori was responsible for managing an asset portfolio of $26 billion and an expense budget of $1 billion. She led over 2,000 employees and managed over 500 vendors as a part of her duties. A notable assignment was her appointment to serve as property development enterprise leader for the first-ever international expansion into Canada. In her role, she led a highly complex real estate, design, and construction program within aggressive timelines. Lori has had proven success leading productive operations in environments experiencing significant growth and increasing complexity while developing winning teams.

During her childhood, Lori was influenced by her parent's lessons on respect and creating opportunity for people. This fostered an interest and passion for volunteering which has evolved to leadership roles in the community. Lori's role as President and General Partner of Rebound Partners Community Real Estate Fund is the perfect position to leverage her experience in finance and properties, but most importantly her commitment to building thriving communities.
